Harishchandragad Trek

(1 Night / 1 Day)

About Harishchandragad

Harishchandragad is a hill fort located in the Ahilyanagar district of Maharashtra, India. It is a popular trekking destination known for its scenic beauty, historical significance, and challenging trails. The fort is situated in the Western Ghats at an elevation of around 1,424 meters (4,672 feet) above sea level. It is part of the Malshej Ghat region and offers breathtaking views of the surrounding valleys and mountain ranges. Harishchandragad is famous for the Konkan Kada, a massive cliff face that offers a mesmerizing view of the Konkan region. It is a favorite spot for trekkers and nature enthusiasts. The Kedareshwar Cave, which houses a Shiva Linga, is another attraction on the fort.

Trekking to Harishchandragad involves a moderate to difficult level of difficulty, depending on the route chosen. The most popular trail starts from the village of Pachnai and takes around 2-3 hours to reach the top. It is the easiest route to reach top. During the monsoon season (June to September), the fort transforms into a lush green paradise with numerous waterfalls and streams. The weather can be unpredictable, and it is advisable to check the forecast before planning a trek. It is recommended to carry proper trekking gear, sufficient water, and food supplies. Harishchandragad also has several historical attractions, including ancient temples, caves, and remnants of fortifications. The Harishchandreshwar Temple, dedicated to Lord Shiva, is a significant religious site for pilgrims. Overall, a trek to Harishchandragad offers a unique blend of natural beauty, adventure, and historical significance, making it a popular destination for trekking enthusiasts in Maharashtra.
